

Gatsby fundraiser boosts charity

0 Comments 16th December 2019

Simpsons Gin Bar was transported back to the 1920s as dozens of locals donned glamorous Great Gatsby outfits to raise money for children's charity YMCA Sutton Coldfield.

The sold-out event which took place in the speakeasy-style bar, was the first of several charity events taking place to support Simpsons' chosen charity and to give something back to the community.

Simpsons owner and Sutton Coldfield Chamber committee member Anne-Marie Simpson said: "It was a brilliant night and a fantastic way to start the festive season. As a Sutton business, we're delighted to be able to support a local charity and the work they do with young people is incredible."

With prohibition punch, 1920s-style music, flapper dresses and dapper gents, the evening was a roaring success with a total of £631
